

OWEN COUNTY HISTORICAL TOUR

GUIDED CARRIAGE TOURS WIND THROUGH OWENTON; STORYTELLERS BRING THE PAST ALIVE;
PROGRESSIVE TEA & FARMERS' MARKET VISIT.

June 26, 2009, 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

(Reservations Required)

*Owen County Courthouse
— Bill Watson unravels
the mystery of a Civil War soldier's secret.*

*Historical Museum
— "House Whispers"
by Bonnie Strassell will keep you on the edge of your seat.*

The Stafford House — Georgia Green Stamper channels the life of a Kentucky riverboat captain.

*The Green House — Joy &
Clark Roberts
bring to life the 1860s and oldest surviving brick home in Owen County.*

Noted Storytellers:

Georgia Stamper-Green — Award-winning author & public speaker, known throughout the state.

Joy & Clark Roberts — Mother and son duo, guaranteed to be very entertaining.

Bonnie Strassell — Local writer & storyteller, becomes the character in her story.

Bill Watson — Kentucky storyteller portraying old Confederate Civil War soldier.

Tea and Carriage Tour $40
Limited seating; reservations required by May 31, 2009

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

E-mail _____

REGISTER TODAY! LIMITED SEATING.

E-mail reservations to:

Peggie@Tischrealty.com or call (502) 484-3652

Please make checks payable to:

Owen County Chamber of Commerce

Mail to: Historical Tour, Peggie Tisch

219 Roland Ave., Owenton, KY 40359

Organized by: Owen County

Chamber of Commerce;

Tea—Owen County Homemakers;

Tour Host—Owen County Women's Club

